Subject RE: Fairchild v. AOS

Matt,

AOS maintains its objection to disclosure of any of its confidential information to Dr. Blanchard. His consulting work for the "two companies in the power MOSFET industry" described in your October 31, 2007 letter renders him unacceptable. In addition, we are concerned that Dr. Blanchard consults or has consulted for other companies not disclosed in your letter. Indeed, your letter only discloses "current" consulting, rather than all consulting within the last 5 years as required by the Protective Order. Also, our objection regarding Dr. Blanchard's connection to Siliconix still stands.

Matt,

Could you create and send to me a redacted / non-confidential version of this letter that I could share with my client?

Thanks,
